WASBE – Eastern Central European Association of Bands and Ensembles’s International wind orchestras competition

I. COROND COMPETITION FOR WIND ORCHESTRAS

Transylvania, Corond, from 4th to 7th of April 2019

The I. Corond International Wind Orchestras Competition will be held from 4th till 7th of April in 2019 in Corond (Romania). This event is organized in cooperation with the Eastern Central European Association of Bands and Ensembles WASBE - Affiliate.

The participants will perform under verifying the international Jury, consisted of professional music experts. The possibility for performances is an excellent opportunity to gain enriching experience at professional level for the improvement of the orchestras.

The participants shall perform two compositions: one is compulsory and the other is free choice approved by the organisers of the competition. The Jury will assess and evaluate the performances of participants according to the strict criteria of points in percentage terms.

This criteria leads to an actual and real achievement of the bands (there can be more 1st, 2nd and 3rd places). Thanks for the competition the participants receive encouragement and professional guidance for their future development.

Categories:

In categoria of small orchestras (max. 30 musicians) the compulsory composition is: H. Purcell – Victory song

In categoria of grand orchestras (more than 30 musicians) the compulsory composition is: Gustav Holst – First Suite (I. part)

In the open categoria there is no compulsory composition.

Performance time limit may be 20 minutes. The competition is qualified by the international Jury.
